

Stephen Lee joined the Center for Pan Asian Community Services, Inc. (CPACS) in 2011 and is the Director of Housing Program. Founded in 1980, CPACS is the longest standing grassroots organization in the Southeast serving immigrants and refugees in metro Atlanta. He and his team recently assisted 100s of renters to avoid evictions in Gwinnett and DeKalb counties with the CARES Act funding. He has an interest in empowering immigrants and refugees and improving the quality of their lives through financial counseling and coaching and homeownership education. His team provides first-time homebuyer education, fair housing rights, foreclosure prevention counseling, and asset building programs mainly, but not limited to, the immigrant and refugee community.
